Organisation

The North Queensland Combined Women's Services Inc (NQCWS) operates from a broad feminist perspective and is welcoming of all women. NQCWS feminist philosophy embodies an analysis of the subordinate (secondary) position of women in society with a strong commitment to personal and social change.

NQCWS is housed at The Women's Centre, and offers a Specialist Homelessness Service, the Townsville Sexual Assault Support Service and a Women's Health Service. The Women's Centre also provides crisis to medium term counselling, group work, information, support, advocacy, outreach, home visits and appropriate referrals to other service providers.

While working with women, both individually and in groups, The Women's Centre aims to promote social and political change by validating women's stories and experiences, advocating for women's rights through awareness raising, community education and social action.

Purpose

To provide a range of interventions to women in the area of homelessness and domestic and family violence against women including case management, crisis to medium term support, advocacy and referrals.

Accountability

The worker is accountable to the NQCWS Coordinator, Team Leader and through her to the Management Committee, to the Staff team, and to service users.
